

TEUTON POINT IS OBJECTIVE OF AGGRESSIVE FRENCH RALLY

As New Offensive Develops It Appears To Be An Attempt To Crumple German Line Between the Meuse and the Moselle

ADVANCE IS PUSHED WITH SAVAGE SPIRIT

Troops of Kaiser Lose Several Strong Positions. While Belgians Are Reported To Be Making Headway In Their Zone

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.) LONDON, April 8.—As the new offensive of the French develops, it appears to be an attempt to crumple the German wedge pointing at Paris between the Meuse and the Moselle, with St. Mihiel for its apex.

Let loose from the leash in which they have been held for so long, the French are pushing their attacks with dash and spirit, and farther north are admitted by Berlin to have captured a village.

Losses Extraordinary
The German official bulletin yesterday on the fighting in the forest of the Argonne and the forest of Le Pretre chronicled nothing but a series of losses which, southeast of Verdun, are said to be have been "extraordinary."

Some of the terrain in front of the German defenses is said to have been literally covered with the bodies of the slain.

Belgians Regain Ground
In Flanders, there has been no further British offensive since the capture of Neuve Chapelle, but the Belgians have regained a little of the ground they lost last week, and the French occupied the village of Dieulouart, after a terrific bombardment which rendered it no longer tenable by the Germans.

Positions Abandoned
Of this phase of the operations the German bulletin says:

"The farms at Dreigraeben, occupied April 5, were abandoned on the night of April 6, after the artillery fire of the enemy and the explosion of mines had completely destroyed them."

CELEBRATED ENGINEER IS CLAIMED BY DEATH

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.) NEW YORK, April 8.—P. Hopkinson Smith, painter, author and engineer, is dead here at the age of seventy-seven. Best known, perhaps, as the author of "Colonel Carter of Carterville" and for his water colors of Venice, Hopkinson Smith was seldom remembered as an engineer of note. Yet he built the new wall surrounding Governor's Island in New York harbor, the Race Point lighthouse off New London, and the foundations of the statue of Liberty on Bedloe's Island, New York harbor.

PRESIDENT ADVISED OF DYE RESOURCES

Textile Mills Will Have To Close If Supply Cannot Be Secured

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.) WASHINGTON, April 7.—Representative Metz of New York, heading a committee representing four hundred textile mills throughout the Eastern States, called at the White House today and held a conference with the President.

Congressman Metz told the President that unless the United States could soon secure some relaxation in the blockade of German ports being imposed by Great Britain and France, through the British order in council, so that a supply of dye stuff could be secured from Germany within the next six weeks, tremendous harm would come to the American textile industry.

He declared that the American textile manufacturers are wholly dependent upon the German chemical works for their supply of dyes and dye bases and that the supply now on hand in America would not last until the first of June. When that supply is exhausted, he said, two hundred and seventy American mills must close, throwing two hundred and sixty thousand American operatives out of work.

The lists include forty-three generals killed and fifty-seven wounded or missing.

GENERAL ZAPATA IS COMING BACK

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.) WASHINGTON, April 8.—General Victoriano Huerta is known to have sailed from Spain and is due at New York next Saturday. What may be the purpose of his visit is a complete mystery, but there are rumors that he will lead a military campaign in Mexico.

From Vera Cruz, General Carranza sends word that General Obregon, his chief commander, has defeated an army moving on Tampico under the personal command of Gen. Francisco Villa who is said to have lost 1000 killed and 400 prisoners. This battle is the first engagement of moment since Obregon evacuated Mexico City, which is now held by Villa's ally General Zapata, and Carranza adds that his information is based on a personal report from Obregon.

Deserting fighting for the possession of Matamoros, across the border from Brownsville, Texas, continues. Stray bullets yesterday struck several houses on the American side of the border, in spite of the repeated warnings from General Panunzio that the combatants must not direct their fire that it should not endanger American lives.

The inhabitants of Brownsville again appealed to General Huerta for protection.

British and French Plan Great Attack By Land and Sea

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.) CONSTANTINOPLE, April 8.—"The Dardanelles are impregnable," said the Sultan today to an Associated Press correspondent.

"They cannot be taken by any fleet," he continued, "and the Allies will be unable to achieve their purpose." "Turkey and myself have the greatest admiration for German officers, German troops and the German Emperor."

COMBINED ATTACK IMMINENT

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.) LONDON, April 8.—There is reason to believe that the Allies are deterring a further attack in force on the Turkish fortifications protecting the Dardanelles until they can make a combined attack from both land and sea, which is expected soon.

Then, with the Turkish garrisons fully occupied by the bombardment of the great Allied fleet, the problem of the international landing parties would be much simplified.

Less has been heard recently of forcing a way through the straits, and though there is no question of relaxing the pressure on Turkey, it appears that new means of making it effective must be devised.

After a long period of quiescence, bitter fighting between the Turks and the Russians has been renewed in the Caucasus.

In a battle lasting eighteen hours, the Turks assert that they parried the Russian attack and occupied several villages on the Russian side of the Don.

Field Marshal von der Goltz, commander-in-chief of the Turkish forces, and yesterday in an interview given out at Vienna, said Turkey is "better prepared than ever."

TEUTON CRUISER PRINZ EITEL INTERNES

Failure of Expected Relief To Arrive Given As Reason By Commander

WARSHIPS OF ALLIES ROBBED OF THEIR PREY

Elaborate Preparations Had Been Made By German Captain To Put to Sea

JOHNSON SECURES PASSPORTS EASILY

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.) NEWPORT NEWS, Virginia, April 8.—After lying here for repairs nearly six weeks, the German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich interned late yesterday for the duration of the war. The breach blocks of her guns will be removed and the engines dismantled, and she will lie idle until peace has been signed. Officers and crew will be paroled.

As soon as word went out that the Prinz Eitel would not put to sea, the embargo on Transatlantic shipping was removed and twenty British merchantmen in New York and other Eastern ports took out clearance papers. Captain Thierichens took advantage of the last minute of delay allowed him. Not until United States customs officers were about to serve notice on him that his time limit had expired and he no longer would be allowed to depart did he ask permission to intern.

Failure of expected relief to arrive, was the reason he gave for his final decision.

The Prinz Eitel went through all the appearance of making a dash for freedom. The ship was coaled, troops were engaged, and the officers bade farewell to American officers with whom they had been thrown in contact.

Allies Robbed of Prey
As a result, the waiting warships of the Allies, patrolling the entrance to Hampton Roads, were kept for some days on tenterhooks and the American government was put to considerable inconvenience and expense. Officers familiar with the condition of the ship's machinery said from the first that she would intere but, in the fact of the elaborate preparations made for putting to sea, the United States navy was forced to take precautions against possible eventualities.

Ramsden, who has gone to San Francisco to engage in insurance on a larger scale, was recognized as one of the best posted insurance men in this territory. It was due in large measure to his efforts that the insurance club of Hawaii was organized. Brown, who is also well informed on insurance matters, also aided in organizing the club and both will attend the coming congress capable of presenting Hawaii's insurance problems in an intelligent manner.

DANIELS ORDERS COURT-MARTIAL

Submarine F-4 Fund Expected To Reach $1500 By Next Saturday Night

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.) HAVANA, April 8.—Secretary Daniels appointed last night a court-martial to try officers of the cruiser San Diego's engine-room staff, on charges preferred by a board of investigation which reported on a stake-hold blowout last January in which nine men were killed outright or as seriously injured that they died later.

The cruiser Chattanooga at Panama was given such orders to proceed to Corrin, in connection with the outbreak of a revolution against President Zelaya on the west coast of Nicaragua.

Seventeen battleships arrived today at Hampton Roads after spring maneuvers off the coast of Cuba, in which Secretary Daniels said he had acquitted himself with "good crisp results."

There will be no red tape, no delay, said Mrs. Moore, and every cent will go where the contributors desire, and not to the general fund of the organization.

It was voted unanimously yesterday that the entire proceeds should be turned over to Mrs. C. B. T. Moore, who in turn will see to it that it goes to the immediate needs of the wives and children of the F-4 victims here. If there is any balance it will be forwarded at once to the Navy Relief Society at Washington, where it will be added to the dependent relatives and families of the twenty-one victims of the submarine disaster.

HOUSE WILL PROBE FAIR COMMISSION WORK AND ACCOUNTS

An investigation of the business transactions and accounts of the Hawaii fair commission and the Hawaii promotion committee, in connection with the Hawaiian exhibit in the Panama-Pacific exposition in San Francisco, will be made by the house of representatives committee on public accounts and public expenditures, of which A. F. Tamm is chairman, the other members of the committee being Norman Watkins, J. K. Lott, W. H. Crawford and D. M. Kuhlman.

The resolution, H. R. 91, which provided for this investigation was introduced in the house yesterday afternoon by Representative Henry J. Kawahara of West Hawaii. Speaker Hiram Bland first referred it to the finance committee, but Chairman Watkins demurred, suggesting it go to the committee on promotion and kindred subjects. Chairman Ivesberg also demurred and then, when Judiciary Chairman William T. Hareling related out the accounts and public expenditures committee was the proper one, the speaker referred it to this body, after the resolution had been adopted.

The committee is authorized and directed under the terms of the resolution, "to investigate the actions of the commission of the Panama-Pacific Exposition and the actions of the promotion committee as to the appropriation of said appropriation," the appropriation being that authorized by the legislature of 1913.

The committee shall "for the purposes herein set forth have power to send for persons and papers and administer oaths, and shall have the right to report at any time," says the resolution. The expenses of the "enquiry and investigation shall be paid out of the contingency fund of the house, upon vouchers approved by the chairman of the committee, to be deemed available."

Chairman Tamm was absent from the house yesterday, and nothing could be learned as to how soon the committee will begin the investigation. Since the session is rapidly drawing to a close, it is believed that the committee will lose no time in getting started.

AD CLUB RAISES $1000 FOR RELIEF

Submarine F-4 Fund Expected To Reach $1500 By Next Saturday Night

One thousand dollars was the exact amount raised for the relief of the families of the victims of the F-4 by the Ad club up to the time of the noon-day luncheon of the members of that organization yesterday. Secretary Layson reported this, his collections showing a shortage of eight dollars and twenty cents.

But it estimated that it would be one thousand dollars at noon today," said Secretary Layson, "and I will contribute the eight dollars and twenty cents necessary to bring it up to this amount." He was cheered for his act.

It is expected that the total Ad club subscription will reach $1500 by next Saturday night when the campaign will come to a close.

There will be no red tape, no delay, said Mrs. Moore, and every cent will go where the contributors desire, and not to the general fund of the organization.

AUSTRO-ITALIAN CRISIS NEAR

LONDON, April 8.—Although the new offensive of the French between the Meuse and the Moselle is nearer home, the vast shadow of coming events on the frontiers of Austria hangs so big that it dwarfs all other news.

The Kaiser's secret and unsuccessful mission to Vienna, as reported in an Associated Press dispatch relayed from New York and published here in the morning papers today, is evidence to all the British editorial writers that the critical position of the dual monarchy is recognized in Berlin, as it is here, to be the key-stone of the Tonic arch.
